

SPC Government College

Beawer Road, Ajmer-305001

Program Outcomes of EAFM

PROGRAMME OUTCOME OF THE M.COM. EAFM

The M.Com EAFM Programme provides the students with the knowledge of finance and economics. This course covers all the topics related to economy and financial bond, in which monetary economics reflects the currency situation in the country. The topic of financial management provides information regarding finance and economic growth and development which models should be used in the economy of the country so that economic development is possible. Public finance subject puts the entire financial system of the country in front of the students and bank subject is beneficial for the students.

If seen in a nutshell, the Economic Administration and Financial Management course enhances the decision making ability of the students in relation to economics and finance.

PSO-I

1. Business Economics: The subject of business economics helps the students to determine the market economy and firm's price and output. Business economics helps in establishing relationships between different economic factors, such as income, profits, losses, and market structure.
2. Financial management: financial management deals with managing the financial aspect of a business and helping them to achieve the goal and objectives.

3. Monetary economics: monetary Economics subject is helpful to understand different competing theories of money. Monetary economics provides a framework for analyzing money and its functions.
4. Indian financial system: Indian financial system subject provide knowledge about Indian economy . Indian financial system subject provide knowledge about financial institution including banks, insurance companies ,fund etc. it encourage both saving and investment.

PSO-2

5. Management and Management Accounting: Management and Management Accounting includes the method and concepts necessary for effective planning for choosing among alternative business actions and for control through the the evolution and interpreting of performances
6. Economic growth and development: by the end of this subject student the subjects is able to understand what is economic development, standard of living , per capita income and other concepts.
7. Bank management :The main objectives of the course of Bank management is to develop a qualified professional who can manage various banking related activities.

8. Development banking: development banking subject is a topic related to the central bank commercial bank and other banks of the country , which plays a vital role in development of an economy . This subject provides knowledge about the rules and regulation of RBI, SBI and other banks.
9. Public Finance: this course provides knowledge about the public Tax ,public revenue, public expenditure and public debt . This course is useful to understand about the the financing system of a country.

Opportunities :

This number course equips student with number of opportunities in finance ,management Accounting, retail sector treasury, teaching profession ,financing advisory, private equity, assets management , bank and financing sectors and student can play a very good rule for a company as a finance manager also.